About Me

I am Ojasvi, a passionate third-year student pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science with a specialization in Cyber Security at VIT- AP University. I'm an outgoing and enthusiastic individual who strives to build positive connections with people from all walks of life.

Education

Python - 2021

During my first semester, I dedicated myself to a comprehensive study of the Python programming language.

Java - 2021 to 2022

During my second and third semester, I committed myself to an extensive and immersive study of the Java programming language.

Raspberry Pi

Over the course of two years, I actively participated in engineering clinics held at our university, where I gained hands-on experience working with Raspberry Pi.

Figma

My initial role as a team member at CSI, offered me the opportunity to broaden my horizons by learning Figma, a prominent design and prototype tool.
